

W/C: 22.06.2020

Monday 22nd June 2020

Formal language

Watch today's video and then use the resource on your stream to distinguish between when to use formal and informal language.

Tuesday 23rd June 2020

Persuasive language

Watch today's video and then use the resource on your stream to write persuasive arguments for the following scenarios. Remember to use persuasive language and give at least three reasons, points for each scenario.

- 1). Schools should not set homework.
- 2). All travel should be free to children.
- 3). School children should have the right to design their own school uniform.

Wednesday 24th June 2020

Features of a persuasive letter:

Look at the formal letter on your stream. Can you find examples of features of a formal letter and include them in the table.

Thursday 25th June 2020

Plan

Use the resource on your stream to plan your own formal letter to the manager at your local supermarket asking them to stock more fair trade products. Remember you will need to use persuasive language and give multiple reasons why they should listen to you.

Friday 26th June 2020

Write:

Watch the teaching video and then use the template to write a formal persuasive letter to your local supermarket explaining why they should stock more fair trade goods.