<https://www.gov.uk/apply-30-hours-free-childcare>

You can usually get 30 hours free childcare if you (and your partner, if you have one) are:

- in work - or getting parental leave, sick leave or annual leave
- each earning at least the National Minimum Wage or Living Wage for 16 hours a week - this is £125.28 if you're over 25 (This earnings limit does not apply if you're self-employed and started your business less than 12 months ago.)

You're not eligible if:

- your child does not usually live with you
- the child is your foster child
- either you or your partner has a taxable income over £100,000
- you're from outside the EEA and your UK residence card says you cannot access public funds

You can get 30 hours free childcare at the same time as claiming Universal Credit, tax credits or childcare vouchers.

These 30-hour sessions can be taken as:

8:45am-3:15pm Monday - Friday

If I am not eligible for 30 hours free childcare?

All children in England get 570 free hours per year. This is broken down as 15 hours a week for 38 weeks of the year.

These 15 hours can be taken either as morning sessions (08:45am – 11:45am) or afternoon sessions (12:15pm -3:15pm).

If available, parents can pay for the extended 15 hours place to 30 hours per week

An extra session (either am or pm) for an additional fee set at £15 per day (including funding)

A full 30-hour week (from 8:45am – 3:15pm) for an additional fee set at £75 per week (including funding)
